Good Practice

Volunteers' Week is about celebrating the support volunteers provide you with throughout the year. Getting involved in Volunteers' Week is a great way of publicly recognising and thanking your volunteers. Remember the Week can also be about celebrating the efforts that you take to make sure that volunteers are effectively involved and have a good experience.

The best way of recognising your volunteers is by making sure that you have good practices in place with respect to the attraction, selection, training and support of them.

Volunteer's Week may be an opportunity to reflect on your practices and even get feedback from volunteers, staff and beneficiaries which can be used to inform your work!

Volunteer Now has developed a set of five good practice workbooks, As Good as They Give, to help you with your Volunteer Management. Click on the links below or download from www.volunteernow.co.uk/publications
